Section 3. Where Work Done or Services Performed Both Within and Without the City: In cases where compensation is earned as a result of work done or services performed both within and without the City, the license fees required under this ordinance shall be computed by determining upon the oath of the employer or if required by the City Clerk and Treasurer upon the oath of the employee, that percentage of the compensation earned from the proportion of the work which was done or performed within the City.

Section 4. Employers to Withhold License Fees and File

Returns:

Employers are initially required to file an application for an occupational license tax number. Each employer shall deduct from each payment due each employee the amount of this license fees measured by one per centum (1%) of the compensation due each employee, beginning on the first day of December, 2008. The payments required to be made on account of each deduction by employers shall be made monthly to the City each year, on or before the twentieth day of the month next following the end of each such monthly period, and each employer shall at the same time make a return in connection therewith on a form made available to such employer by the City Clerk and Treasurer at the office of the City Clerk and Treasurer. Provided, however, that the failure or omission by any employer to deduct such license fees shall not relieve an employee from the payment of such license fees and compliance with the requirements for making returns as provided in this ordinance, or with any regulations promulgated under this ordinance. Each employer shall file in the Office of the City Clerk and Treasurer on or before December 1, 2008, a return on a form made available by said City Clerk and Treasurer, at the office of said City Clerk and Treasurer, which return shall show the gross amount of compensation of each employee, the amount of license fees deducted and paid by such employer for all or any part of the period from and including December 1, 2008, and the last known address of each such employee, and on or before January 31st of each year thereafter a return showing the gross amount of compensation of each employee and the amount of the license fees deducted and paid by the employer, during all or any part of the preceding calendar year. Each employer shall keep accurate records of all such compensation, deductions, license fees, payments, and returns. Such records shall be kept and maintained by each such employer for not less than five (5) years subsequent to the date such compensation was earned.

Section 5: Returns To Be Filed By Employees:

When a monthly return, as required by Section 4 hereof is not filed by an employer and the license fees are not paid to the City by such employer monthly as herein provided, the employee for whom no return has been filed and no payment has been made shall file a return with the City Clerk and Treasurer on or before the 1st day of the second month next following the end of each such monthly period, showing in said return his gross receipts subject to license fees for each month, and he shall also file a return with the City Clerk and Treasurer on or before January 31st of each year thereafter in which his employer has failed to file any quarterly return required in the preceding calendar year, showing on said return the gross receipts subject to license fees during the preceding calendar year. If for any reason all license fees of a person subject to the provisions of this ordinance were not withheld by his employer from his gross receipts, such person shall file each return required by this Section on a form obtainable at the office of the City Clerk and Treasurer. In addition, to the gross receipts earned by him, such return shall show such other pertinent information as may be required by the City Clerk and Treasurer. Each person making a return required by this Section shall, at the time of filing thereof, pay to the City the amount of license fees due under this ordinance, provided, however, that any portion of the license fees deducted at the source shall be deducted on the return and only the balance, if any, shall be due and payable at the time of filing said return. Each employee shall keep accurate records of all such compensation, deduction, license fees, payments, and returns. Such records shall be kept and maintained by each such employee for not less than five (5) years subsequent to the date such compensation was earned.

Section 6: Duties of the City Clerk and Treasurer It shall be the duty of the City Clerk and Treasurer to collect and receive all license fees imposed by this ordinance and to keep records showing the amounts received by him from each employer. All moneys received by the City Clerk and Treasurer shall be deposited in a duly approved depository and credited to the General Fund of the City of Midfield, Alabama. The City Clerk and Treasurer shall prescribe printed forms for use by the persons subject to the provisions of this ordinance and shall make such forms available at his office for use by such person.

Section 7: Investigative Powers of the City Clerk and Treasurer:
The City Clerk and Treasurer or any agent or employee designated by his is hereby authorized to examine the books, papers, and records of any employer or supposed employer, or any licenses or supposed licenses in order to determine the accuracy of any return made, or if no return was made to ascertain the amount of license fees due under the terms of this ordinance by such examination. Each such employer or supposed employer or license or supposed license shall give to the City Clerk and Treasurer or to his duly authorized agent or employee, the means, facilities, and opportunity for the making of such examination and investigation. The City Clerk and Treasurer is hereby authorize to examine any person under oath concerning any gross receipts which were or should have been shown in a return, and to this end he may compel the production of books, papers, records, and the attendance of all persons before him whether as parties or as witnesses, whom he believes to have knowledge of such gross receipts or compensation.

Section 8: Regulations May Be Promulgated: The City Clerk and Treasurer may prescribe, adopt, promulgate and enforce reasonable rules and regulations not in conflict with this ordinance relating to any matter or thing pertaining to the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this ordinance, including but not limited to provisions for the re-examination and correction of returns as to which overpayment or underpayment is claimed or found to have been made, and the regulations so promulgated shall be binding upon all licenses and employers.

Section 9: Information To Be Confidential: Notwithstanding any ordinance to the contrary, any information gained by the City Clerk and Treasurer or any other official or agent or employee of the City as a result of any returns, investigations, hearings or verifications required or authorized by this ordinance shall be confidential, except for official purposes, or in accordance with proper judicial order, or the enforcement of this ordinance and any person or agent divulging such information, except as herein permitted, shall upon conviction be subject to a fine of not more than $100.00 or to imprisonment of not exceeding thirty (30) days, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 10: Interest and Penalties:

(a) All license fees imposed by this ordinance which are delinquent, that is, which remain unpaid after they become due shall be subject to the provisions hereinafter set out, bear interest at the rate of twelve (12%) per centum per annum, and any person who has failed to pay such license fees when the same became due shall be subject to the provisions hereinafter set out, also be charged a penalty of ten (10%) per centum of the amount of such unpaid license fees. Any person or employer who fails or refuses to withhold any license fees payable under this ordinance, or who fails to pay such fees after withholding the same to the City at the time it is due, as provided under the provisions of Section 4 hereof, shall become liable to the City for such fees, as well as for the interest thereon at the rate of twelve (12%) per centum per annum and for the aforesaid penalty. Provided, however, that the minimum penalty imposed against such person or employer shall be three ($3.00) Dollars. Provided the City Clerk and Treasurer, if a good and sufficient reason is shown for the failure to pay the tax within the time required may waive or remit the penalty and interest, or a portion of either, upon payment of the tax due.

(b) Any person or employee who shall fail, neglect, or refuse to pay a license fee as by this ordinance required, or any employer who shall fail to withhold said license fees, or to pay over to the City such license fees, penalties, or interest imposed by this ordinance, or any person required to file a return under the provisions of Section 5 of this ordinance, who shall fail, neglect or refuse to file such return, or any person or employer who shall refuse to permit the City Clerk and Treasurer or any agent or employee designated by him, in writing, to examine his books, records, and papers for any purpose authorized by this ordinance, or who shall knowingly make any incomplete, false or fraudulent return, or who shall attempt to do anything whatever to avoid the full disclosure of the amount of gross receipts or compensation in order to avoid the payment of this whole or any part of a license fee, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punishable by a fine not to exceed the sum of $100.00 for each offense and by imprisonment, not to exceed six months, or both, at the discretion of the court trying the same and each day shall constitute a separate offense. Such punishment shall be in addition to the penalties imposed under sub section (a) of this section.

Section 11: Extension of Fine For Making Return: The City Clerk and Treasurer, for good cause, may extend the time for making any return required under the provisions of this ordinance, but the time for filing any such return shall not be extended for a greater period than thirty (30) days from the day such return is due to be made and shall not prevent penalty and interest from accruing during the period of such extension. Any person desiring a specific ruling should submit to the City Clerk and Treasurer a written statement of pertinent facts involved and a concise statement of the point or points in question.

Section 12: Use of License Fees: All money derive from license fees under the provisions of this ordinance shall be paid to the City of Midfield and placed to the credit of the General Fund of the City of Midfield, and shall be used and expended as authorized by law.

Section 13: Severability: The provisions of this ordinance are severable. If any provision, section, paragraph, sentence or part thereof, or the application thereof to any employer or license or class or persons, shall be held unconstitutional or invalid, such decision shall not affect or impair the remainder of the ordinance, it being the legislative intent to ordain and enact each provision, section, paragraph, sentence and part thereof, separately and independently of each other.

Section 14: Repeal of Ordinance: All ordinances or parts of ordinance in conflict with this ordinance are to the extent of such conflict hereby repealed.

Section 15: Effective Date: This ordinance shall be in full force and effect on and after December 1, 2008, and from year to year thereafter, until repealed.

Adopted this 13th day of October 2008.
